LUNCH AND LEARN (français)

Tuesday, March 26, 2013, from 12: p.m. to 1:30 p.m.
101,1247, Kilborn Place, Ottawa

L’âgisme: comprendre et changer le regard social sur le vieillissement

The Canadian population is aging. Despite this, ageism, this form of discrimination on the basis of age is expressed explicitly or insidiously and is too little exposed. Could the reasons for this silence be in the absence of information or rather the lack of knowledge about aging?

Keynote speaker Ms Martine Lagacé
Associate Professor
Chair, Dep. of Communication
University of Ottawa

To register, please call (613)789-3577, ext.24 or by email at lucie.chenevert@coaottawa.ca